

• Eric Hellman

To: Virginia H.

Re: Liked your comments / Invitation to 'guest' on our Teleconference

Hi Virginia,

Read your "creationism" post & heard your CBC radio interview; liked what you said and appreciated your courage. There's a huge gap between 'accepted science' and the 'origins of consciousness and cosmos'...

I'm the Director of a network called the Centre for Spirituality at Work. We do monthly teleconferences, in which I interview people with pertinent stories/experiences. (Part of our work is helping people to talk more openly about these.)

I'd love to have you as our guest this month – on Tues evening, Oct 29th (or another date/month more convenient). Our conversation would be about the challenges you've had speaking up about religious/spiritual/consciousness matters in your work, and what ideas/experiences brought you to this.

If you're interested, please email me (erichellman@rogers.com) or call me (416-233-8665) – and I can send you more information.

Keep comin' out... It's an important conversation.

My best,

Eric Hellman

For more background:

Our website is www.spiritualityatwork.org

To hear previous teleconferences: www.spiritualityatwork.org/9.html

(Last month I talked with a 27-year Police veteran who'd had a spiritual experience in the line of duty – and is now starting the Institute for Spirituality & Policing)

My personal site (though outdated) is www.erichellman.com

Best, Eric